

Please do not change the law on telephone privacy it has lessened calls to my home dramatically. I used to receive calls all the time usually from telephone companies and now I very rarely receive one. For me this is good because I have school aged children and our after noons are very busy already with homework. Thank You for your time.